

...IN THE SOCIAL REALM...

Mr. Charles Washington Coleman, of Williamsburg, Va., is noted among the writers of the State for the delicacy and charm of his rhythm in verse. The poem herewith given, over his signature, appeared in the June Harper of 1883. It is reproduced by request.

June Cometh.

O Lover-Bird, haste to thy wooing,
Break forth into bloom, red rose;
For the east doth flush with an eager blush,
And June thro' the garden goes.

She is white like the tall white lilies
That slaken the air with sweet,
And the yellow hair of her bosom bare,
Falls down to her sandal'd feet.

Her eyes are deep as the ocean,
And calm as a forest pool,
Her breath is as free on the sea-winds be,
And her lips with the dew are cool.

She comes from the daisied meadows,
By tender winds o'erblown,
For hazy the child who erst ran wild,
Is now a woman grown.

Behold, like a queen she cometh,
To stately and fair and meek;
And the lilies swoon in their own perfume
To touch her fairer cheek.

O birds, be no cease to your singing;
Break forth into bloom, red rose;
For day's high priest cometh out of the east,
And June thro' the garden goes.

Her eyelids droop with the passion,
Her trembling lips would own;
And the kiss of the sun her brow upon,
A rose in her cheek has blown.

Her long white arms to her lover
She lifts, and her parted lips,
Drink the light of his kiss, as a bee, I wist,
The sweet of a lily sips.

Sing loud, O ye birds, of loving,
Till all the world gives ear;
For the sun is in love in the heaven above,
And June, the queen, is here.

Goode—Finch.

Dr. Drewry Hunter Marrow, of Union Level, Mecklenburg county, announces the engagement of his sister, Allen Marrow Finch, to Mr. Edward Chambers Goode, the son of Colonel Thomas F. Goode, of Boydton, Va., and Commonwealth's attorney for the county of Mecklenburg.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of the late Drury S. Marrow, of Union Level. The wedding will be quietly celebrated at her home, in Boydton, during the mid-summer months. The announcement will be received with great interest in this city and throughout the State.

Hamilton—Braxton.

The nuptials of Miss Elizabeth Carter Braxton, the daughter of Mrs. Robert Carter Braxton, to Mr. Charles Colson Hamilton, of Brooklyn, N. Y., will be celebrated at 8 o'clock on the evening of June 27th, in the home of the bride's mother, No. 1100 West Main Street.

The house will be charmingly decorated in green and white, and the Rev. Dr. W. E. Evans, of Monumental Church, will perform the ceremony.

The bride will come in with her brother, Mr. Robert Carter Braxton, who will give her away. She will be groomed in white organdy over silk and carry pink roses.

Her sister, Miss Nellie Gilliam Braxton, as maid of honor, will be in pink and have a bouquet of pink sweet peas.

Miss Mary Catherine Gilliam, the bride's cousin, from Petersburg, and Miss Mollie Bowden, of Chesterfield county, a duo of bridesmaids, will wear white and have white carnations.

Mr. Ritchie Smith, of Stamford, Conn., will attend the groom as best man. After the wedding a reception will be given to the bride party by Mrs. Braxton. Later Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton will leave for a Northern tour and will take up their residence in Brooklyn, N. Y., after July 15th.

Miss Braxton belongs to the Carters and Braxtons by descent, two families so prominently identified with Virginia history as to need no further mention. Mr. Hamilton is the son of Mr. Charles Colson Hamilton, of New York. His mother before her marriage was Miss Cole, of London, England.

Faulkner—Terrell.

At 6 o'clock P. M., in Monumental Episcopal Church, on June 25th, Miss Elizabeth Walker Terrell and the Rev. Thomas Green Faulkner will be united in marriage by the Rev. Dr. Floyd Rogers, an intimate friend of the groom, assisted by the Rev. Dr. W. E. Evans.

The bride will be charmingly attired in cream net over taffeta, with point lace trimming. Her flowers will be white sweet peas. She will be attended by her sister and matron of honor, Mrs. Charles Habbington, who will wear pink and carry pink chrysanthemums.

Mr. Harry Faulkner, of the University of Virginia, will be his brother's best man. Among the relatives from a distance will witness the ceremony will be Judge and Mrs. Faulkner, the groom's parents, and his sisters, the Messrs. Faulkner, of Boydton, Va.; Mr. Charles Faulkner, of the Episcopal High School, at Alexandria, Va.; Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Terrell, of Hanover county, and Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Terrell, of Frederick Hall, Louisiana.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Terrell, of Hanover county, an accomplished graduate of the training school at the Virginia Hospital, where she entered as a nurse ten years ago. She has won high honors in her profession and has a wide circle of friends in Richmond.

MISS LAELIA M'EVROY,

Honor Graduate in Music from St. Mary's Benedictine Academy.

The groom is the son of Judge and Mrs. Faulkner, of Boydton, Va.; has been recently ordained from the Union Theological Seminary, and is the rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church at Clifton Forge, Va. He comes from a talented family, which has prominent social connections in Southwest Virginia.

The Rev. Jean Knatz Here.

The Rev. Jean Knatz, of Paris, who is representing the Huguenot Society in this country, is spending a few days in Richmond as the guest of Madame Guillaume.

MASTER ALLEN G. THURMAN.

Master Thurman, of Columbus, O., the nephew of Mrs. M. C. Patterson, of this city and the great-grandson of Senator Allen G. Thurman, will, on June 28th, draw aside the flag and unveil a memorial tablet placed by the Columbus Chapter, D. A. R., upon the boulder in Martin Avenue Park, Columbus, which marks the spot where General William Henry Harrison made his famous treaty with the Indians. Master Allen is named for his famous ancestor, "the old Roman."

He is the son of Mr. Albert Lee Thurman. His mother was Miss Mary Cochran, the daughter of Judge John L. Cochran, of Charlottesville, Va., and the sister of Mrs. Patterson.

at No. 7 East Grace Street. He will preach this morning in the First Presbyterian Church.

To Europe Next Year.

A limited party, conducted by Miss Effie Aylett Cofer and Miss Emma Morehead Whitfield, will sail from New York in June of 1905, for Liverpool, to remain abroad seventy days, the tour taking in the Shakespearean country in England and including visits to London, Paris, Cologne, Strasburg, Berne, Interlaken, Lucerne, Milan, Venice, Florence, Rome and a sail from Naples through the Mediterranean Sea to Gibraltar.

Misses Cofer and Whitfield are bright, intelligent companions, and must prove delightful chaperones. Those who take advantage of the opportunity they offer next year will find themselves exceptionally fortunate.

The Cavalier.

One of the prettiest and most catchy musical compositions of the season is the "Cavalier" march and two-step, written by Mr. J. N. Kaufman, of this city, and dedicated to the Colonial Dames of Virginia.

Mr. Kaufman, who is well known in Richmond, has composed several musical numbers, but this is the first he has ever had published.

The "Cavalier" has been arranged for bands and orchestras by Mr. John Baser, also of this city, and will be played during the summer concerts in the parks by Professor Jardella's band.

The sketch of the title page is very attractive, representing a set of drawn curtains, revealing a coat of arms embellished by thirteen silver stars.

Critics predict that Mr. Kaufman's composition will become very popular with the musical public.

Musical in Pickett Hall.

A musicale will be given by the pupils of Mrs. H. R. Riches, in Pickett Hall, No. 307 North Seventh Street, June 28th, at 8 P. M.

Friends and patrons will be admitted by invitation and a charming following programme of music and recitations will be rendered by Miss Grace Slaughter, Miss Virgie Ellis, Miss Marie Smith,

Miss Lucy Gude, Miss Berta Mays, Miss Annie Wolsiefer, Miss Wina Newman, Miss Marie Carter, Miss Lily Bradley, Miss Mayre Priller, Miss Patty Isaacs, Miss G. Slaughter. The slogan of the "Star Spangled Banner" by the class will be followed by the awarding of prizes.

Misses Newman and Carter and Isaacs will be the vocal soloists of the occasion. A charming feature will be the introduction of "Little Maids of Japan," by a sextette, including Misses Lucy Gude, Lily Bradley, Berta Mays, Marie Carter, Virgie Ellis and Annie Wolsiefer.

Mrs. Riches will be accompanist.

Midsummer Excursion.

The midsummer excursion, to be given by Mrs. Anna Rahm and Miss Bettie Elyson, to the World's Fair, in St. Louis on July 19th, is arousing widespread interest among the people of Richmond.

The expenses of a seven days' trip, under the most accomplished and agreeable of chaperones, for the very reasonable sum of forty-five dollars, commends itself to everyone.

The season for a visit to the fair is most propitious. Everything now at the Exposition is in full swing, and the beautiful city and its suburban attractions can now be seen to the fullest advantage.

Those going with Mrs. Rahm and Miss Elyson can be quite sure that the smallest detail in regard to comfort and convenience will be thoroughly considered.

Natural Bridge Excursion.

After a charming trip the Natural Bridge excursionists returned to Richmond, delighted with the wonderfully beautiful place they had visited. Mr. C. H. Paxton, proprietor of the resort, did everything in his power for the comfort and pleasure of the party, and his perfectly equipped hotels left nothing to be desired.

A goodly sum was realized for the benefit of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Among those who went on the excursion are Miss Jean Roth, Glasgow, Scotland; Mr. Tom Wilkinson, New York; Mr. T. H. Wilkinson, Mrs. T. H. Wilkinson, Toronto; Mr. B. F. Hamilton, Mrs. B. F. Hamilton, Syracuse; Miss Mary Madison, New Town, Va.; Mr. G. B. Keeler.

MR. ROBERT HENNING WEBB.

This young gentleman of Suffolk, Va., won his M. A. degree at the University of Virginia this year and was appointed instructor of Latin for the coming year. His paper on "Witchcraft in Virginia" won the prize offered by the State Society of Colonial Dames for the best essay on Colonial History.

Spence, Miss Lela Kraske, Miss Josie Ingalls, Miss Annie Coleman, Miss Mattie Hasker, Miss Jessie Haynes, Mrs. W. H. Reekes, Miss Beale Wells, Miss Eleanor Haynes, Miss Eva Murdoch, Miss Lizzie Ide, Miss Eva Howell, Miss Helen Fleet, Miss Katharine Fleet, Miss Annie Fleet, Mr. Sam Fleet, Mrs. James Phillips and Mr. A. R. McCalley, of Richmond.

Personal Mention.

It is a fact to be regretted that Mr. Hahn's condition is such as to prevent his attending the convention of the Music Teachers' National Association in St. Louis, to which he had been appointed a delegate to represent the State of Virginia. This convention will be held this week for several days, and will be attended by most of the prominent musicians of this country. No efforts will be spared to make it the most interesting of all the meetings ever held by the association.

Among those who have elected to spend a charming summer in the little colony at "Westwood," the former home of Dr. Hunter McGuire, now leased by Mrs. John M. Cragin. She has gathered about her such delightful people as Dr. and Mrs. John Dugas, the Misses Porter and Miss Marvin and maid, who are enjoying their suburban environment to the utmost.

Mr. O. H. Berry and Mr. Jake Anderson will leave shortly to spend some time traveling in England and on the continent of Europe.

Mrs. C. E. Dawley is visiting Miss Estelle Courtney, on Park Avenue.

The moonlight excursion down James River, that was to have been given by the ladies of the First Baptist Church and that was postponed, will take place July 5th, when all tickets bought will be good, and when there will be every arrangement for the pleasure and enjoyment of those who go.

About three hundred guests were present at the reception given in Reservoir Y. M. C. A. Hall, by the Auxiliary of the Passenger and Power Company Christian Association, to the employees of the company, and their families. Cream and cake were served to the employees coming in on the late cars, and to those in the office.

Mrs. Eugene Shephardson, having disposed of her former home on Grove Avenue, is now stopping with Mrs. J. O. Martin, on Grove Road. Her sister, Mrs. Minnie Clarke, and her daughter, Callie, have returned to their home in Rochester, N. Y.

Miss Nannie Birdsong, of Baltimore, is

Richmond in August, when she will complete her household arrangements for the coming winter.

Mr. John G. Luce and family of No. 800 Floyd Avenue, are spending the summer at "Rose Retreat" farm, Goodland, Courthouse, Va.

Mrs. Alfred Henderson McDowell and her little son, William, have left the city for Locust Grove, in Powhatan county, where they will spend the summer.

Miss Ida Habbington will leave Richmond early in July to spend the summer at Woodlawn, near Buckner's Station, Va.

Mrs. Horace Jones, of Newport News, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. William Todd Robins.

Miss Fannie Gray, of Cincinnati, is visiting her grandparents, Colonel and Mrs. J. D. Tree, at No. 321 West Grace Street.

The singers for the opening evening of the Home for Needy Confederate Women will be Miss Mabel McElain, Miss Belle Powell, Mrs. Eugene H. Clowes, Mr. E. H. Clowes and Mr. Dunbar. A quartette and several solos will be contributed. Governor Montague will make a short address in behalf of the Home. His friends are cordially invited to be present.

Mrs. D. T. Williams will shortly make a visit to her daughter, Mrs. R. M. Gilbert, in the delightful summer home of the latter at Lake George, New York. Mrs. Williams will return from Lake George to the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs, where she will be for the rest of the season.

The June recital of Miss Zelle Minor's piano class will take place at the music rooms of Ferguson Brothers, No. 11 West Broad Street, next Tuesday evening, the 28th, at 8:30 o'clock.

Miss Minor and her pupils will be assisted by Miss Mamie Harrison and Mr. Roo C. Tupman, vocalists.

Mr. Shepherd Webb has kindly consented to accompany the singers.

Miss Frances Blue Woodson and Mrs. W. C. Saunders are at Virginia Beach enjoying the bathing and other attractions of that delightful resort.

Mrs. J. C. Williams, of No. 410 North Twenty-third Street, who has been very ill, is improving. She is under the skillful care of Dr. A. B. Cosby.

Mr. L. Cabell Williamson and wife, and Mrs. N. Landreger, of Washington, D. C., have returned home after a brief visit to Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Nosselt, of Brookland Park.

"Moonlight on the James," a spirited and beautiful musical composition by Professor Ernest L. Bolling, which has been recently published, was played by the professor at the closing recital of his students, and was greatly admired.

MISS B. GRACE BOOKER.

Miss Booker left for Winchester last Thursday, where she has been appointed by Miss Agnes Tompkins as one of the trained nurses of the Winchester Memorial Hospital, at which hospital, her sister, Miss Belle Booker, is already a nurse. Miss Booker is a daughter of Mr. Thomas Tabb Booker, of Amelia county, who served in the Confederate army for four years, was wounded at Winchester and at Seven Pines. She is a direct descendant of John Booker, who was among the first to be granted land by the King, when this country was being settled. Miss Booker was appointed maid of honor at the Fourth District of Virginia at the reunion held in Wytheville, in October, 1902, and it was decided by one of the most prominent men of Virginia that she and the late General A. P. Hill's daughter, were decidedly the handsomest ladies present.

the guest of Mrs. Lorraine Ruffin, on Chestnut Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Bernard Hurton have returned from their wedding trip and are now at home on No. 233 Rowland Street.

Mrs. George B. Finch, who has been spending a fortnight in Richmond, returned to her home in Boydton yesterday. Mrs. Finch will go to the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs for a month this season.

Mrs. William Law Clay, children and maid, established at Heidelberg House, Flat Rock, N. C., for the summer.

Mrs. Charles Davenport is at Lakeside House, Eaglesmere, Pa.

Miss Pitzer will spend July with her sister, in Roanoke, and will return to by all who heard it. The first page of this composition has a graphic historical sketch of Dutch Gap, which adds greatly to its interest.

Mrs. Julia Chandler Fowden, who was the guest of Mrs. Fowden last week, and gave a charming recitation at the Auxiliary entertainment at the Reservoir last Friday evening, has left for home.

VIRGINIA BEACH.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LEWISBURG, VA., June 25.—The final commencement ball given by the cadets of the Virginia Military Institute took place in the gymnasium there Thursday night and lasted until 6 A. M. the next morning. For brilliancy it has not been surpassed in many years past. Ice cream was served during the dancing, and supper in the cadet mess hall at 2:30 o'clock, when many partook of an elegant supper of substantial and cream.

The music was by Green's orchestra, of Washington, D. C.

The couples in the opening figure were: Cadet Leonard C. Langhorne, Cadet Hill of Lynchburg, Va. with Miss Frances Bernard Couper, of Norfolk, Va.
